Schaumburg Police Investigate Traffic Accident Involving a Fatality Update #1

The Schaumburg Police Department Special Operations and Investigation Divisions are continuing to investigate the traffic accident involving a fatality which occurred on August 15, 2018 in the 500 block of East Schaumburg Road.

The driver of the 2009 Mercedes, Feroz Q. Khan, was taken into custody shortly after the accident. Following a thorough investigation the Assistant State's Attorney approved charges for Aggravated DUI Drugs/causing death and Driving under the influence of drugs. The investigation indicates that both speed and intoxicating substances were contributing factors causing the accident.

Khan will appear for a bond hearing at the 3rd District Cook County Court in Rolling Meadows at 1:30 p.m. today, August 17, 2018.
